

Margie Christie is the Executive Director of Dayton Right to Life. Over her past 10 years with the Dayton Right to Life, she has served on the Board of Directors, as the volunteer coordinator, and as Director of Advocacy and Programs. In 2017 she joined the executive directors of Toledo, Cincinnati and Cleveland Right to Life groups and to form the Right to Life Action Coalition of Ohio (RTLACO), the state's fastest growing pro-life advocacy group. She is currently on the RTLACO Board and is a past president for the organization. She has helped to draft several pieces of pro-life legislation and has provided testimony on many pieces of state legislation to protect the unborn and other vulnerable members of our community. She is also a member of the CAANE (Collaboration Against Abuse, Neglect & Exploitation), a multi-disciplinary team in Montgomery County, OH focused on elder abuse issues.

She is a graduate of the University of Dayton and Carroll High School. She and her husband Dan (also Flyer alum) are parents of 4 adult children.
